Guatemala is not hearly so warlike as reported, and a comparatively peaceful state of affairs exists.

The government has not been unnecessarily unjust in dealing with political offenders, and though the country is in bad shape financially, there is every reason to suppose that a continuation of peace will adjust matters. There have been no political executions except where comparators have been caught red-handed in the act of trying to cause a revolution.

The floor will be the largest in the county, and will be enclosed by a railing for the present. At the south end of the dance floor a stage flexif feet is being erected, and the whole will be completed within the next ten days. Work begins today on the lake bed, east of the payllion. Everything will be cleaned out of the hed, and the wafer turned in from the river. Arrangements have already been made for boats to put on the lake as soon as the water is turned in. The entire grove is to be lighted by electricity, and an arch will be erected over the gate bearing the word "Glenwood" in electric lights. Mr. Maitese, the manager, is on the ground, giving the matter his personal attention and rushing the work as rapidly as possible.
